

Md. Adnan Hossain, Founder & CEO of It's Humanity Foundation. Graduate from BRAC University in Marketing. Since his childhood Adnan was always a people's person, always put his hands on need and helped people and that motivate him to start his own venture which can help humanity from his country and abroad also bring a sustainable process to develop community. Adnan started his venture at the age of 21 and put his all the effort to make it successful with all the ups and down. Currently

It's Humanity Foundation is one of the active Non-profit Organization in the country. It is providing free education over 500 students and developing community by giving free job training to women. In 2015 Adnan won the title as a "Most Promising Social Entrepreneur" from US Department of State and has been selected for International Project catalyst, where he got Training on Entrepreneurship and achieve his first step of success at Seattle, Washington. Currently, Adnan Hossain working as an "Ambassador" of Start-Up Istanbul in Bangladesh and engaging with so many youth activities.